Collection of personal data

You can look around our offerings quietly and with complete discretion: customer discretion has been our strength from the beginning. Therefore, we do not conduct any user-related analyses and we strictly adhere to applicable data protection regulations.

We only store personal data to the extent that and as long as is necessary for making contact, information that you voluntarily provide to us. Your data will be stored only with your express consent or if storage is necessary on the basis of the legally applicable standard. Storage shall take place only as long as is necessary to answer your query or process your orders and/or if it is required by law. You can revoke your consent at any time.

Access data

When you visit our website, the following data is recorded in a so-called server log to monitor and statistically evaluate our services:

- IP address
- Date, time and time zone of access
- Browser type and version
- Source web address
- Visited web address
- Retrieved data size
- Successful query

In so doing, no personal data is collected, with the exception of the above. An evaluation relating to other information that you provide on our site will not take place at any time.

Contact form

Data that you enter in the contact form will be saved to answer queries. This data will not be disclosed to third parties without your consent. No comparison with data collected by other components of our website is carried out.

Use of Google Maps

We have integrated features of Google Maps on our website. The provider is Google Inc., 1600 Amphitheater Parkway Mountain View, CA 94043, USA. The Google Maps API component stores a so-called session cookie in the memory of your PC when you access our website. This contains a randomly generated, unique identification number as well as information on origin and storage period. These cookies cannot save any other data. It is used to process user input and is deleted after a session expires.

If you do not agree with this processing, you can prevent the storage of cookies by selecting the appropriate settings on your browser. In this case, you will not be able to use the features of Google Maps on our website.

The use of Google Maps and information obtained from Google Maps is governed by the Google Terms of Use
<http://www.google.de/intl/de/policies/terms/regional.html> and the additional Google Maps Terms of Service https://www.google.com/intl/de_de/help/terms_maps.html.

Information, correction and deletion

You can request information regarding your data stored by us and its origin and the purpose of storage at any time free of charge.

You may at any time request correction, restriction of processing or deletion of your personal data. Inquiries can be sent to us by e-mail, telephone or fax. Notwithstanding, MULAG will delete your personal data as soon as it is no longer required, at the latest, however, after the expiry of the statutorily defined maximum retention period.
